Conference on Early Detection of Radicalisation and Networking

Conference day is moderated by the Director of the Estonian Police and Border Guard College,
Kalvi Almosen

19th March 2019

I BLOCK

09:15-10:00 Registration and coffee

10:00-10:30 Opening words
Krista Aas, Deputy Director General for Development, Estonian Police and Border Guard Board

10:30-11:00 Radicalisation and terrorism: a general introduction
Paul van Soomeren, DSP-Groep, Netherlands

11:00-11:20 Radicalisation in Estonia in general
Raivo Küüt, Deputy Secretary General for Internal Security, Ministry of the Interior

11:20-12:00 Panel discussion: Radicalisation – problem or phenomen?
Paul van Soomeren, DSP-Groep
Raivo Küüt, Ministry of the Interior
Andres Ratassepp, Estonian Internal Security Service
Ringo Ringvee, Ministry of the Interior

12:00-13:00 Lunch

II BLOCK

13:00-13:30 Finland: Radicalisation prevention and Anchor project
Matti Airaksinen, National Police Board of Finland

13:30-14:00 United Kingdom: Radicalisation prevention and multi agency cooperation
Ghaffar Hussain, London Borough of Newham

14:00-14:30 Netherlands: Radicalisation prevention and multi agency cooperation
Rob Out, National Police of the Netherlands

14:30-14:50 Estonia: Tools for radicalisation prevention and multi agency cooperation
Pärtel Preinvalts, Estonian Police and Border Guard Board

14:50-15:30 Panel discussion: Multi agency cooperation - challenges and who is the bus driver?
Jan Trei, Estonian Cities and Municipalities Union
Ghaffar Hussain, London Borough of Newham
Kaisa Üprus-Tali, Social Inscurance Board
Illimar Reinbusch, Estonian Police and Border Guard Board
Pärtel Preinvalts, Estonian Police and Border Guard Board

15:30-16:00 Coffee break

III BLOCK

16:00-16:45 Belgium: Brussel airport attack
Jean-Pierre Devos, Federal Police Belgium

16:45-17:00 Early detection of radicalisation in the community policing
Pärtel Preinvalts, Estonian Police and Border Guard Board

17:00-17:30 Discussion and conclusions

This project is co-funded by the European Union